SEAGLER ELECTED SPEAKER 127 TO 19!

SPEAKER SEAGLER OUTLINES THE PROGRAM TO STATE LEGISLATORS

People of State Had Stated Program They Wished Followed in Platform of Democratic Convention at San Antonio Last Fall—Seagler's Speakership is Made Unanimous.

(Special to the Dallas News).

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 9.—R. E. Seagler of Palestine was elected speaker of the House of the Thirty-Eighth Legislature at the opening session Tuesday by a vote of 127 to 19 for Lewis T. Carpenter of Dallas. There were 149 members present. J. R. Hardin of Kaufman did not vote and both Seagler and Mr. Carpenter cast blanks. On motion of Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Seagler's election was made unanimous. Speaker Seagler, upon assuming the chair, announced that the people of Texas, by the platform adopted at the State Democratic convention at San Antonio last September, had provided the program of legislation which he would seek to follow. As parts of that program he announced the following:

Program of Legislation.

More effective prohibition laws; a co-operative system for the marketing of farm products; the Sheppard-Towner act; a better system of public highways; co-ordination and reorganization of agricultural agencies; conservation of natural resources; court reforms; amendment of the election laws and the curing of the "many defects"; more adequate employees' compensation; prison reform and especially the relocation and centralization of the penitentiaries; removal of officers when they fail in the performance of duty; soldiers' compensation; equalization of tax reductions; provision for the public schools by appropriation to be added to the general school funds; a public utilities regulation bill; a constitutional convention; voting privileges for soldiers, sailors and marines; and the establishment of a branch college of the A. and M. College in West Texas. Much applause met the references to adequate provision for schools and West Texas A. and M.

In addition to carrying out this program, the speaker asserted that it was the duty of the Legislature to solve the problem of the State's financial deficiency and to do justice to everybody in regard to taxation. That responsibility, he declared, fell equally upon the speaker and the members.

The demonstration for Seagler began, when, as Representative from Anderson county, his name was first called upon the roll. When Carpenter's name was reached in the Dallas county call, there was also applause.

Mrs. Wilman's Applauded.

Mrs. Edith Wilman of Dallas first woman to sit in the House was also applauded when she answered the initial roll. Numerous old members were accorded similar honor. Mrs. Wilman was first recognized by Secretary of State Staples when the election of speaker was taken up. She placed Mr. Carpenter in nomination, saying that she did so at the request of the Dallas delegation. Lee J. Rountree, of Bryan, nominated Seagler. Those who seconded the nomination of Seagler were O. L. Pate of Van Zandt county, J. E. Quaid of El Paso, B. W. Patterson of Eastland county and Lee Satterwhite of Panhandle. Carpenter's nomination was seconded by William Lusk of Washington county, R. E. Sparkman of Ellis county, George C. Pury of Dallas and J. T. Stroeder of Navarro.

People Speak for Change.

Mrs. Wilman declared that the selection of a new member as speaker would not be without precedent, saying that it would be twice done in Texas. William Lusk said that the people, by sending ninety-three new members to the House, spoke for a change and that there should be equal privilege for new members in everything, including the speakership.

ing the speakership. Lee Satterwhite replied to Representative Lusk and said that of eighty odd members who offered for re-election only twenty-two were defeated. Those twenty-two, he said, were, in most instances men who had pushed legislation of the session. In response to a resolution by H. E. Bell of Coryell, the vote was taken by the members advancing to the clerk's desk and placing their ballots in a hat Mr. Staples appointed as tellers Representatives Joseph Moore, I. W. Culp, T. G. Collins, Nathaniel Jackson, H. E. Bell, T. P. Hull and H. E. Faubion.

Both candidates were applauded as they went forward to cast blank ballots and Mrs. Wilman was given generous applause both from the floor and galleries as she cast her first vote. It became apparent long before the necessary majority vote was polled that the count was "going overwhelmingly for Seagler. When the count was announced and the applause had died down, Carpenter was recognized and announced his wish to join in the congratulations being showered upon the winner.

No Sense of Defeat.

"I entered the campaign," he said "in no sense of personal ambition. If I had, I should feel a deep sense of defeat. But I have no such feeling." He said that he ran that the members might have an opportunity of expressing their views on the subject. I speak with utmost sincerity," he said, "when I offer the speaker my heartiest congratulations and a pledge for co-operation." He hoped that the election of Mr. Seagler be made unanimous and closed with thanks to those who had voted for him, announcing that there was satisfaction in having gone through to the end. Representative E. H. Gipson, William Lusk, Carey Abney, F. B. Potter and Walter Jones were appointed to escort the speaker to the chair, where the oath was administered by the Secretary of State.

"Gentlemen and Lady."

In addressing the House, the speaker adopted the phrase "Gentlemen and Lady of the House." He declared himself unequal to expressing his feeling upon election but announced that for him there would be no distinction between "new" and "old" members; that he had no wish to thwart the will of the majority, but that he would respect the wishes of the majority. Immediately after the election of Mr. Seagler, Representative T. K. Irwin of Dallas issued a statement as campaign manager for Mr. Carpenter, extending congratulations and expressing a desire to cooperate in the work of the session. Throughout the campaign, the statement said, the Carpenter forces had sought to avoid all things that might tend to future misunderstanding.

BRAZOS BAPTIST ASSO. HELD GREAT MEETING BRYAN CHURCH MONDAY

The quarterly meeting of the Brazos County Baptist Association was held with the First Baptist church in Bryan, Monday, January 8th in an all day session. W. S. Barron, led the devotional exercises at the opening of the meeting at ten o'clock, and in the absence of the moderator, W. H. Buchanan of Kurten, Mr. Barron was elected moderator, pro-tem. With Rev. R. L. Brown, secretary-treasurer and a good representation from the various Baptist churches of the county, present as delegates, the session was one of profit and splendid Christian fellowship throughout. The reports read before the association showed that all financial obligations of the newly organized association had been met, and a nice balance of cash left in the treasury. The body voted that a new car be purchased for the Brazos County Missionary Rev. J. J. Pipkin, for his work in going from church to church over the county. The Bryan Mexican church made report of its affairs, through Rev. William Ibarra, and it was an inspiration to the meeting to hear of the earnest work being done in the Master's Kingdom by its members, all of whom are now converts to the faith. Every member of this little Mexican church has pledged to give $10 to the work of the church for their coming year. At the noon hour, the delegates and visitors were served a delicious luncheon on a beautifully arranged luncheon table in the dining room of the tabernacle and an enjoyable social hour spent with good fellowship, talks and work during the New Year.

In the afternoon the Women's work of the association, with Mrs. A. B. McSwain, the president, presiding held its meeting in the church auditorium. In the absence of Mrs. E. Kennedy, who has left Bryan to make her home in San Antonio, Mrs. Carl Seely of Millican served as secretary of the meeting. Reports of the various chairmen, gave positive proof of the new enthusiasm that has taken hold of the women's work in Brazos county and gave assurance of great things to be accomplished in the coming year. Reports from the Woman's work in the churches represented were given as follows: Report from the Bryan church, given by the Auxiliary president, Mrs. R. W. Persons, and the secretary, Mrs. Frank Bunting; Millican, Mrs. Carl Seely; Kurten, Mrs. Will Henderson; College, Mrs. McDonald; Reliance, Miss Essie Shealey; Cottonwood, Mrs. J. L. Sample.

Plans for the entertainment of the district meeting which convenes in Bryan in March were discussed and committees on general arrangements will be announced at an early date. Mrs. Albert Buchanan was appointed by the president, as Association publicity chairman, and instructed to give as wide publicity as possible to all plans for this, and other meetings of the association. Sisters Ibarra and Garcia of the Bryan Mexican church were present, and given welcome. A list of those in attendance at this quarterly meeting follows: W. C. Hill, T. C. Elliott, Edge, Dr. and Mrs. L. Sample, Charley Locke, Cottonwood; Mrs. Carl Seely, Mrs. Jim Sawyer, Millican; Mrs. Walter Lloyd, Miss Essie Shealey, Reliance; Dr. and Mrs. W. F. George A. Adams left Tuesday afternoon for El Paso in response to a telegram that his brother, Harlan, was desperately ill. The nature of the disease was not made known, but Mrs. Adams hopes for a message tonight from Mr. Adams giving her details.

THIEVES ENTER HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING AND STEAL TWO VICTROLAS

Sometime between Saturday afternoon and Monday morning thieves entered the High school building on the East Side and stole two Victrolas, some fountain pens, a clock and numerous other small things. One of the Victrolas and the clock was the personal property of Miss Annie Deering. The other was the gift to that school from the Bryan Reading Club. Officers are at work on the case and have a clue and it is thought the guilty parties will be apprehended.

She named Dr. B. M. McKoin, former mayor of Mer Rouge and Pink Kirkpatrick as two of the party of men whom she testified, came to her mother's home one night and took her away. They put her, she said, aboard a train for Little Rock, Arkansas, the home of her sister. She gave her age on the witness stand as 17.

CLEBURNE, Texas, Jan. 10.—Ranger Hale Cloud, who has been here since July 1, 1922, is transferred to Marfa, Presidio county, he says where the coyotes howl and smugglers smuggle, when they can. #### PECAN GROWERS WIN.

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Jan. 10.—Retention of the government entomologist at Brownwood where the federal pecan insect laboratory has been maintained for several years and considered independent for the industry in Texas to combat the pests that infect the nuts, marks the successful culmination of a fight waged for almost two months by the Texas Pecan Growers Association, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and other interested organizations and individuals.

MR. GRAHAM BUSY MAN.

W. E. Graham of Rock Prairie was in Bryan today on business. When one of his partial friends wished him a Happy New Year he replied: "My New Year has been gone so long I have half a crop made." That proves beyond a doubt Mr. Graham has been a busy man these days.

Mrs. A. B. Curtis, Jr., is expected to arrive today or tomorrow from Tyler, Texas, to spend several weeks in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Barron.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gurely were in Bryan today from their ranch home in the Kurten community.

ROUNTREE PROPOSES NEW SOLUTION OF ALL CON-CON PROPOSALS

(Austin American.)

More than 50 members of the legislature are in Austin for the caucus on a resolution proposing a constitutional convention for Texas, which caucus will be held Thursday. Three candidates for speakership of the house during the session which will start next Tuesday are here. Representative R. E. Seagler of Palestine and Lewis T. Carpenter of Dallas have opened headquarters while Tom Shires of Waco, the third candidate, is also here and busily campaigning among members reaching the city. Representative-elect E. P. Gipson of Wichita Falls, former adjutant general of Oklahoma, reached Austin Wednesday for his duties in the session. Representative Lee J. Rountree of Bryan, one of the leaders in calling caucus on constitutional convention matters, also reached the city Wednesday, while Representative J. E. Quaid of El Paso, another leader in the movement to have the convention call issued by the legislature, is due in Austin Thursday morning. Adrian Poole of El Paso, one of the leaders in the house for several terms, is already here.

Representative Rountree of Bryan will call to order the meeting, which will be held at the Driskill hotel this morning. The members will plunge at once into discussion of points of division between various groups of those who advocate the general idea of action by the legislature to call on constitutional convention for rewriting the state's basic law.

Plan to Save Time.

"This is somewhat of a novel idea," Mr. Rountree declared last night, "of fighting out the differences before the legislature meets, rather than on the floor of the house. But we do think the time of the house should be spent in the advocates of the measure squabbling among themselves over methods or detail. If they find the people don't want a constitutional convention, and they cannot agree on calling it, then it should be dropped, and none of the time of the session wasted on it."

Representative J. H. Quaid of El Paso, co-laborer with Rountree and others for submission of the convention call, will reach Austin early this morning, and be present in the caucus, it was stated last night.

NIGHT TRAVEL WEARS ROADS.

The experiments being conducted on the Bates experimental road, show that night travel is more wearing on highways than is day travel, according to Clifford Older, chief highway engineer. The road expands in the day, according to Mr. Older, and the center becomes convex. The heat is absent at night, and the road assumes a concave shape, the edges curling up and forming a slight hollow in the centers. From these discoveries it is deduced that heavily loaded vehicles traveling along on the edge of a road have a tendency to cause it to crumble. The testing of the Bates road was begun late in March and is still under way. It was delayed for a time by the floods.

Young Stanley Davis driving a high-powered car on the Dallas-Fort Worth highway, ran into a heavy truck and two of his companions were killed and he and others were painfully injured. In speaking of the tragedy Stanley said: "I had to hit the truck or I would have hit the woman and baby." Stanley is a hero—the only mistake he made was running so fast he could not stop Stanley, don't you go so fast any more, especially when you have been nowhere and are going nowhere. It is safer.

The town newspaper that stands four-square for the interests of the community and every citizen of it at all times and is able to perform a public service is a benefactor and deserves support and not criticism. Citizens who do not realize this should get a new vision of their duty because no community ever succeeded without a good newspaper.—Fourth Estate.

"Getting back to Normalcy" is the eternal black headline. The only way to resume business is to resume. Too many men are afraid they will do more than their duty. Do your duty and normal conditions will be established instantly. All men should be brave enough to do their duty.

When the thirty-eighth session of the Texas Legislature convenes in January, it will be faced with one of the hardest programs that has confronted a Texas Legislature for many years. A new constitution, reforestation, water conservation, flood prevention, highway building, public schools and general education, a better taxing system and many other important issues will probably be brought before this Legislature.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

The Mexia News says that Henry Ford is being talked of as a candidate for the presidency. It is said that Henry is now the richest man in the world and could capitalize his wealth at $2,000,000,000 and that it would pay 6 per cent. If that is the prerequisite for the presidency it would be "straight is the path and few be there who find it."

The Granger News says: "This is your newspaper. It is up to you to make it a better news medium if you will. The publisher can only do so much and without the patronage and co-operation of the business men and citizens of this section, all efforts will result in very little progress. A good newspaper reflects the spirit of a loyal citizenship."

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO

The following appeared in the Houston Post twenty-five years ago, January 8, 1898: "Bryan—The alumni and former cadets of the Agricultural and Mechanical College are organizing a movement to raise $20,000 with which to erect a monument in memory of the late Governor Ross."

TEXAS MOVING FOR TOPOGRAPHIC AND HYDROGRAPHIC SURVEYS

(Dallas-Galveston News.)

Water conservation program.—Members of the legislative committee of Texas Conservation Association and representatives of other organizations that are affiliated with that association met in Austin last Thursday to formulate proposals to be submitted to the legislature. They seem to have agreed definitely on only one measure. This is a bill to provide for the making of topographic and hydrographic surveys of streams presenting need of flood prevention and the opportunity to store water for either irrigation or power purposes. The surveys are to include a determination of practicable sites for impounding dams and estimates of cost. They would also determine the possibility and feasibility of flood water diversion as an aid to flood control. Such surveys as this bill proposes to have made would apparently lack nothing in comprehensiveness. If the work called for should be efficiently done we should have laid

MANY PEOPLE SEEM TO FAVOR CRIMINALS

Governor Neff in his speech at Floresville Saturday night rebuked in scathing terms the "large class of mush-headed, faint-hearted sentimentalists," who are in the habit of bestowing their adulation and sympathy upon criminals, their sympathies increasing in proportion to the enormity of the crime. "This maudlin mania and sickening sentiment both in and out of the jury box, that loses sight of truth and justice and right, and makes a hero out of every person who commits a crime is eclipsing the bright light of that resplendent star on the American flag that emblems forth the grandeur and glory of Texas," he declared.

"No finer example can be had of criminal hero-worship than when a few months ago 7,023 persons in Bell county signed a petition that the governor either pardon or commute the death sentence adjudged by court and jury against George Hornsby," he continued. "Hornsby was a young man, a deserter from the American army, went under an assumed name to avoid identity, a transient fellow without vocation, lived with a woman not his wife on a negro street in Brownwood, and for the purpose of robbery, murder, if human testimony is to be believed, one of the substantial citizens of Brown county. That he might have an impartial trial, removed from local influence, the case was sent to Bell county. The jury assessed the death penalty, and from the evidence as I found it to be, another verdict would have been a travesty of justice. No sooner was the verdict of guilty rendered than there was begun by men and women among them the very best citizens of Bell county and the equal of those of any other county, a campaign closely resembling hero-worship of the convicted murderer.

"Reports stated that admirers banded brought to his cell the delicacies of life, flowers were strewn for him to walk on to the scaffold and fair women coveted the privilege of holding his hands while the black cap was being adjusted. By public contribution a costly casket was purchased and flowers piled high above his grave, even as the grave of one who had fallen in defense of his country.

"To these more than 7,000 petitioners I made no apology then and I make none now. In the administration of the law, I am for the Court House, its judgments, and its decrees. It is the one tribunal whose sole function is to make life sacred and property secure."

THE TEXAN

From the Waco Times-Herald: A hotel man in Chicago thus remarked to a citizen of this state: "A man here from any of the New England States, when asked where he is from will say 'from the East.' A man here from Idaho or Wyoming or Arizona, answering the same question, will say 'from the West.' A man here from Alabama or Georgia or Mississippi, when called upon to locate himself, will say 'from the South.' There are three exceptions to the rule, the man from New York, the man from California and the man from Texas—each identifies himself with his state."

It is even so. The man from Texas is never from the South; he is never from the West; always everywhere he is a Texan. The people of Texas have their political differences; they have their religious differences, but when they come to deal with Texas institutions, they put aside their political and religious differences and pull steadily on the oars. A fair illustration is the way all the people strive to make a success of the Cotton Palace Exposition. Being for the upbuilding of grand old Texas, the exposition has the loyal support of the man at Amarillo and the man at Brownsville—the man at El Paso and the man at Texarkana. All Texans are proud of the history of their state; they rejoice in the possession of so goodly a land. Whether he be a son by birth or a son by adoption makes no manner of difference; his being a Texan is all the rest want to know. Henry Grady's phrase, "Loving to his State and loyal to the Republic," adequately describes the Texan.

One of the real big questions in Texas that should be settled by the legislature without quibbling is the flood control, land reclamation and irrigation problems of the state. There are millions of wealth and production to be added to the values of Texas if the people proceed along the lines of self-preservation.

SHERIFF AFTER TWO MEN NOW IN ENNIS

Sheriff L. E. Morehead left at noon today by auto for Ennis to bring back to Bryan B. H. Rodman and son, Virgil, on a charge of theft. Rodman, who it is said, has gone under several names, and son, Virgil, came to Bryan a week or more ago and secured board from Mrs. L. H. Tucker and without notice left Wednesday morning early for parts unknown. Wednesday it was reported to Sheriff Morehead that clothes had been stolen from the home of Mrs. Claude Griffin on College Boulevard. Sheriff Morehead got busy and today located Rodman in Ennis and will bring him back to Bryan to answer to the charge of theft.

VISITORS OFF TO EASTERLY

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. McDonald, who have been here for a visit to Mr. McDonald's parents, County Superintendent and Mrs. D. J. McDonald, left today for Easterly, Robertson county, where Mr. McDonald will superintend the building of some oil tanks. While here Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have been receiving the congratulations and good wishes of friends, their marriage taking place Christmas day at San Marcos. Mrs. McDonald before her marriage was a Miss Wynifred Barnes, an accomplished young graduate woman with six years experience in language teaching in the public schools, and has won for herself an enviable reputation in the teaching profession.

MR. BATTE SERIOUSLY ILL

Relatives and friends of Mr. T. R. Batte have been assured that his condition is very critical, following a serious operation, which he underwent on Wednesday, at the John Sealey Hospital at Galveston. Mrs. Batte and the daughters of the family are all at Galveston to be near him during his illness. A telephone message about noon today gave the information that, while he was partially conscious, he is very much weakened, and the crisis is not yet passed. Many friends will regret to learn of his serious condition, and hope for more encouraging reports later.

ROUNTREE PLANS FOR CHANGE IN POLL TAX

(Austin American)

Representative Lee J. Rountree of Bryan, here for the caucus of legislators to be held Thursday on the calling of a constitutional convention, plans to introduce an amendment to the present constitution requiring that the political affiliation of each voter be written into his poll tax receipt when the poll tax is paid. Mr. Rountree will remain here until the opening of the session, it was stated. Among other amendments and legislation he will advocate are: Raising $40 to $50 per child annually for education; flood control and reclamation work; revised tax laws, he announced. Mr. Rountree will offer a bill to appropriate a quarter of a million dollars to pay costs of a complete topographic survey of the watersheds of the state he said.

CITIZEN'S PLAIN DUTY

The Bryan Eagle, whose editor himself is a member of the Texas Legislature, notes that Senator C. F. Richards has resigned and says: Senator Richards gives as his reason that the salary as a member of the legislature will not pay his expense. The salary has remained the same for fifty years and living expenses have advanced 300 per cent or three times what they were in 1876. Isn't it a fact, Lee, that neither the salary nor the high cost of living has changed since the Senator was elected? Editor Rountree is serving his second term in the Legislature and doing well his part. But he is serving at a financial sacrifice that amounts to at least $500 a year exclusive of the time taken from his own business, the knowledge of work well done in the way of service to his State and the community he represents being the only offset. A great many Texas citizens delight in "cussing" the legislature, but a majority of them, as is evident from efforts to change the situation, don't believe in paying them a salary sufficient to meet their actual expenses of giving that service.—Will C. Edwards in Denton Record-Chronicle.

Every man spends more or less time and money for certain purposes other than the mere business of making money or building up a great fortune. At least every citizen should do more than merely live in the community. No man should shirk his part of the responsibility. Of course the criticism and "cussing" referred to by Editor Edwards, who is also a member of the Legislature, having been nominated by Denton county by petition to run. Mr. Edwards has in his district two great schools, the North Texas Normal, the College of Industrial Arts, and also the State Experiment Station, under the direction of the A. & M. College. He has long filled places of honor such as president of the Texas Press Association and member of the democratic executive committee and perhaps the unselfish work he has rendered will live after him for many years to come. Those who do the "cussing" should render some service to the people and they would not have so much time to be unjust and critical. Every man should do his whole duty fearlessly whether it pays or not and ask no favors. Citizenship is based on a higher principle than the mere making of money.

Fighting in Ireland is nearly as disastrous as looting in Germany. It all comes high and must be paid in dollars and blood.

UNION SERVICES HELD SUNDAY EVENING AT TABERNACLE SUCCESS

The union services held at the Tabernacle at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening by the following churches of Bryan: First Christian, First Presbyterian, Free Will Baptist, First Methodist and First Baptist drew a record breaking crowd and it is said by many to have been one of the greatest union services ever held in Bryan. The purpose of the meeting was the perpetuating and strengthening of the Christian fellowship that exists between these churches and promulgated through the Pastors' Association. Nothing but good can come from a meeting of this kind, because it is always that you love and appreciate people the more by knowing them. Under the direction of Mrs. H. O. Boatwright there was a splendid musical program rendered by a union choir drawn from every church. One of the special features was the magnificent congregational singing and the wonderful spirit in the singing, each one present taking part. Mrs. D. S. Buchanan, a gifted musician, and a recent addition to the musical circles of Bryan, sang a solo which was very much appreciated, and the choir rendered the anthem, "Come to My Heart Lord Jesus," with Mrs. R. S. Webb at the piano. Rev. C. N. Calmes, president of the Pastors' Association presided and each of the pastors made brief and helpful talks. Rev. Wm. N. Sholl, "The Fellowship of Our Faith;" Rev. H. C. Willis, "The Church and Missions;" Rev. C. B. Thompson, "The Church and Soul Winning;" Dr. John A. Held, "Our Young People As a Field and a Force."

Correctly designed and balanced plant is a matter that will be easily solved by placing in the hands of competent cotton mill engineers. They will design according to our wishes and our wishes should be for an up-to-date plant with all modern equipment. The best is none too good. Nothing but new and modern machinery will do. We want adequate floor space, warehouse, fire protection, humidifier system, lighting system, machine shop and about forty tenement houses.

SOIL IMPROVEMENT CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED FOR BRAZOS COUNTY

Following up the present activity and interest in terracing as a means to check the drastic toll on the farms of Brazos county by erosion, a Soil Improvement Campaign will be held in the county on Monday, January 15, for the purpose of calling attention of the farmers to the important factors bearing upon yields and to emphasize practical and profitable means by which they can increase the yields of their cotton, as well as other crops. Only practical everyday farm questions will be discussed and they will be presented from the farmer's standpoint.

The matter of soil terracing, drainage, cover crops, fertilizers, spraying of cotton, cotton varieties, all of which influence yields, will be discussed out in the fields in a way that every farmer who attends will get something worth while from the discussions. Among those to assist in this campaign will be A. K. Short, Agronomist, Extension Service, A. and M. College of Texas; A. W. Buchanan, District Agent, Extension Service; Mr. J. C. Pridmore, Agronomist and Soil Specialist, Shreveport, La. It is said Mr. Pridmore is one of the best posted men in the South on the needs of the soil and what it takes to produce maximum yields at the least cost. He assisted in the Soil Improvement Campaigns recently conducted in North East Texas where thousands of farmers and business men were given a new vision as to the needs of agriculture. We, in Brazos county, are fortunate indeed to have this soil expert visit our county and tell us some of the things we may do to improve our present farming conditions.

From what has been said of the campaign in other parts of the state, we suggest that it would be time well spent for all who can to be in the party early in the morning and stay with them through the four meetings scheduled for the day.

The following statement from Mr. Pridmore will serve to show his plain and practical way of saving a thing to any farmer cannot help but understand: "The yields and profits in growing cotton go hand in hand. The bigger the yield the smaller the cost for growing each pound. The smaller the yield, the larger the cost per pound for growing the crop."

Reports of surveys made recently by the United States Department of Agriculture show that when the yields of lint run from 100 to 150 pounds per acre the cost this year was 23 cents per pound for growing it. When the yields ranged from 250 to 300 pounds, the same reports show that the cost was only 15 cents per pound for growing it. The yield per acre, then, is the most important factor affecting the pound cost of growing, as well as profits to the farmer."

The meetings will be as follows: Monday, January 15, 9 A. M.—At Rock Prairie Church, or old school house, near Carroll's Store. Harvey school at 11 A. M. Kerten, at 3 p. m. Tabor, 7:30 p. m. Nearby farms will be used for field meetings.

NEVER PUT IT OFF

Our attention was recently attracted by the following short, yet true saying: "Never put off until tomorrow the profit you should be making today by having advertised yesterday." Truer words were never printed than these. Mr. Merchant let one of your New Year resolutions be that you will advertise more during the year 1923 than ever before. Newspaper advertising has been proven to do the following five things: Extend the store's radius of friendship, put customers in a buying mood, make fixed overhead yield bigger profits through quick selling, stimulate salespeople in better efforts, make policies to fit new conditions instantly effective. What more does a merchant want? The newspaper will do things for him. Try it and be convinced.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

REQUIREMENTS FOR BRYAN COTTON MILL

(By F. C. Lichte)

The requirements for the successful cotton mill may be put under several headings and grouped as follows: adequate financial backing; potential supply of labor; adequate and economic source of power; a trained operating organization; reliable and capable business men as executives; correctly designed and balanced plant; proximity to raw cotton; proximity to market; plus pluck and nerve to get in the game.

Bryan has all these with the exception of labor. The absence of trained labor should not prevent the building of the mill. It will not be hard to draw on the other mills for a nucleus and add to this the untrained help from our town that will soon learn to do satisfactory work. The old saying, "A new broom sweeps clean" applies very well in this case as a new mill never has any trouble these days getting plenty of help to start up. Men are to be had.

As to financial backing, Bryan and Brazos county certainly are blessed with this article but it will take a hustler to get the citizenship to say so. Power may be the most difficult proposition to handle, but others have solved this problem; why can't we? For trained operating organization, leave this matter to the superintendent and manager; it is his business to look after such problems and if you have a good manager you can rest easy.

No trouble to find the reliable and capable business men for the directorate. We have a town full of these men. Look at our Chamber of Commerce and Building and Loan Association, banks and other business houses.

Correctly designed and balanced plant is a matter that will be easily solved by placing in the hands of competent cotton mill engineers. They will design according to our wishes and our wishes should be for an up-to-date plant with all modern equipment. The best is none too good. Nothing but new and modern machinery will do. We want adequate floor space, warehouse, fire protection, humidifier system, lighting system, machine shop and about forty tenement houses.

The cotton is around us all the time and the farmer will be glad to deliver his cotton to our warehouse. Some might say we might have a poor market. This will depend on what we decide to manufacture. If we make a good gingham or towels, the market is solved from the start as these are staple items and always in demand.

Pluck and nerve seems to be the handicap. This should not be so. How many hours did it require to sell the first, second and third series of the Building and Loan? How many dissatisfied patrons are there in this organization? It is the talk of the whole state. Houston and Waco are going after a mill now. Let's beat them to it.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SMITH APPRECIATES BRYAN EAGLE

Recently the Eagle carried the news story that District Attorney J. Dixie Smith of Harris county, held a prayer service when he assumed the oath of office and eighteen of his deputies were sworn in. The following letter explains itself and is appreciated: "Houston, Texas, Jan. 5—Hon. Lee J. Rountree, Bryan Daily Eagle, Bryan, Texas. Dear Friend: I have received copies of the Bryan Eagle which you sent me, containing an article written about our office, and the manner of the opening ceremonies at the time we took oath, for which I wish heartily to thank you. I just feel that with the people all over the state giving us the encouragement that we have been receiving that there is no excuse for us not to make a success in the important office to which the people have elected us. It is my intention to give the people of Harris county one of the strongest administrations they have had, and if we can have the co-operation of the good people everywhere this will be made possible. Again thanking you for the splendid article, and with a word of regard to Mrs. Rountree and my other friends in Bryan, I am, Sincerely Yours, J. DIXIE SMITH, Criminal District Attorney, Harris County, Texas.

T. C. NUNN HOME BADLY DAMAGED FIRE TODAY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Nunn on College Boulevard was badly damaged by fire this morning about ten o'clock. It is thought that the fire originated in a defective flue, and was not detected until it had gained considerable headway. Although the fire department responded promptly after the call was made, the fire burned rapidly, and the entire top was burned, and the lower rooms and galleries all were badly damaged by fire, smoke and water. A greater part of the furnishings were saved, but much of the furniture was broken and trampled while being taken from the burning house. The loss was estimated by City Fire Marshal J. Z. Ramsey, at about $1,000. There was no insurance on the house or furniture.

Vision's Value

Do you appreciate the importance of good eye sight? If your sight is not perfect you could make every effort to improve it. Glasses may be necessary but this is a question you cannot decide for yourself. Eyestrain is often unsuspected as such by the sufferer as the sight appears to be perfect. Our system of examination is thorough. If your eyes trouble you in any way we shall be pleased to advise you whether yours is a case for glasses or not.

STOLEN PROPERTY WAS RETURNED WITH MEN

Sheriff L. E. Morehead returned yesterday by car from Ennis, bringing back with him B. H. Rodman and son, Virgil, and the stolen property that accompanied them when they left Bryan Wednesday morning. Nothing had been stolen from the Claude Griffin home and from the Boy Scout home on College Boulevard. From descriptions sent out, the father and son were apprehended at Ennis. They had neglected to pay a $25 board bill at Mrs. L. H. Tucker's, no doubt forgetting it in their hurry to get away. Rodman and son are in the county bastille to await the action of the grand jury.

REP. QAID LOSES CAR

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 6—The broad smile which Representative John E. Quid of El Paso as a rule carries, dwindled considerably today when he received a telegram from his wife advising that their new motor car, valued at $4,500 had been stolen Thursday night while Mrs. Quid was attending a reception. For an hour Mr. Quid was engaged in sending telegrams to various points along the border requesting officers to watch out for the stolen car.

ELIZABETH ANN BETTER

Reports this morning received by Mr. Wilson Bradley on the condition of little Elizabeth Ann Bradley, who has been very ill at the Baptist Sanitarium in Houston, are encouraging. For the first time there is a slight improvement for the better. This will be good news to the many anxious friends.

FIRE CAUSES NO DAMAGE

A fire alarm was turned in this morning at 7 o'clock from the home of W. O. Sanders on East 29th street, which caused quite a bit of excitement in that neighborhood. It proved to only the burning out of a flue, but if it had not been for the prompt action of Mr. Sanders it would have been disastrous as the soot was falling inside the rooms.

RECLAMATION BILL AGREED UPON STATE ASSOCIATIONS AT AUSTIN

Bill Will Be Introduced Next Tuesday Asking Appropriation to Make a Topographic Survey For The Brazos, Trinity, Colorado and Rio Grande Rivers—Meeting Held Saturday.

(Special to the Galveston News).
AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 8.—At a conference here today of persons interested in conservation, reclamation and flood control, a bill was agreed upon carrying $300,000 to further that work during the next two years. This amount would be divided as follows: $100,000 to the state board of water engineers, an equal amount to the state reclamation engineer for topographic surveys and the further sum of $100,000 for the board of water engineers to make stream measurements and other hydrographic work. The bill calls for topographic and hydrographic surveys of streams and watersheds for purposes of conservation, reclamation and utilization, these reports to be made to the governor as soon as practicable. It is left to the board of water engineers and the reclamation engineer as to where the work shall begin. The bill will be introduced by Representative Rountree, joined by seven other representatives in the Brazos, Trinity, Colorado and Rio Grande watersheds. The federal government through its geological survey and army engineers will also provide funds, equipment and technical personnel to co-operate with the state of Texas in this work, it was explained. ## CALL MEETING BRAZOS COUNTY FARM BUREAU SATURDAY AT BRYAN

The Brazos County Farm Bureau held its annual meeting in the Court House Saturday, January 6th, in Bryan. After the meeting had been called to order by the president, Mr. J. L. Stasney, A. W. Buchanan, district agent, was called upon to make an address. Mr. Buchanan made a very interesting and instructive talk outlining the plans and aims of the Bureau for the present and future, especially in the marketing of cotton. Mr. C. L. Beason, county agent, then made a very interesting talk in his appeal to the farmers to carry on in spite of all the opposition and efforts of those who would profit by the failure of the Bureau. He called attention to the fact that on this past November 11th, when cotton was selling on the local market for from 18 to 20 cents per pound, that the Farm Bureau sold for from 26 to 28 cents, thus making quite a difference in the returns to those who were fortunate enough to sell through the Farm Bureau. Following Mr. Beason, Dr. Garnett of the A. & M. College, gave a very instructive and inspiring talk on the value of the collective selling of our farm commodities, stressing the terrible setback that would follow the failure of the farmers in their movement in pooling for united selling. He urged the importance of regular meetings of the County Bureau and the value of local units in the county. After the discussions, the regular elections of officers for the year 1923 was held with the following officers elected: President, F. H. Poole, Millican, vice president; J. L. Stasney, Smetana, secretary; P. S. Mangum, Edge, treasurer; John Rychlik, Jr., Edge, J. L. Stasney, with J. J. Hollick alternate, were elected delegates to the State Convention soon to convene in Dallas. The following were elected directors for the ensuing year: John Henry, Bryan district; F. H. Poole, Millican district; John Rychlik, Wheelock district; J. J. Hollick, Smetana district.

County Agent C. L. Beason announced the Soil Improvement Campaign for January 15th to begin at Rock Prairie at 9 a. m., on to Harvey at 11, to Kurten at 3 p. m., and a general meeting at Tabor that night. There will be a soil expert from Washington present at these meetings to discuss field soils, etc. All the farmers are urged to come to these meetings.

MR. EDGE OPTIMISTIC OVER 1923 PROSPECTS

W. A. Moore of Lampasas has arrived in Bryan to take charge of the advertising of the Eugene Edge Department Store. Mr. Moore is an experienced window decorator and ad writer and will have charge of the advertising department of the store. Mr. Edge realizing the value of newspaper advertising has secured this competent man to take charge of it for 1923 and the Bryan trade will get the benefit of it. Mr. Edge is very optimistic for the year of 1923 and sees no reason why Bryan should not get back to her usual high record as a trading point if the business men will reach out for the trade that rightfully belongs to Bryan. Mr. Edge is in the fight for a bigger and better Bryan.

'UNCLE ABE' ENJOYS HIS 89TH BIRTHDAY

For thirty-nine years on the 8th of January, the home of some Hensarling in Brazos county has been the scene of a joyous festive occasion. The occasion being the celebration of the birth anniversary of the father of the Hensarling family in Brazos county. Mr. Abram Hensarling, "Uncle Abe," as he has always been affectionately called. Why these celebrations date back for 39 years is from the fact that they began on "Uncle Abe's" fiftieth birthday, making him now 89 years of age. These celebrations were formerly held at the old Hensarling home, but since the old people "broke up" housekeeping a number of years ago, these joyous occasions have been held at the home of a son or daughter. So in keeping with this beautiful custom on Wednesday of this week the splendid home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hensarling was the scene of one of these happy occasions. Everything was done by the host and hostess to make this occasion one of the most joyous that they have ever had. Something like one hundred guests were present composed of sons and daughters, and grandsons and grand daughters, and great grandsons and great granddaughters, and a few invited friends. The time was pleasantly spent in conversation and eating a splendid dinner, after which Mr. A. W. Buchanan entertained the company with a few remarks and recitations of some little poems in honor to "Uncle Abe," which were beautiful and appropriate for the occasion. After this the guests began to say goodbye to Mr. Hensarling and his good wife, wishing them many returns of the joyous day, each one feeling as he went that he had enjoyed very few happier occasions in this world. Uncle Abram Hensarling has been a resident of Brazos county for more than 50 years, having lived in Steep Hollow community all the years of his active life. He was recognized as a sturdy, peaceable, quiet and upright citizen. He is the last of the old set of grand old pioneers who founded and settled that great community in the late sixties and early seventies. His birthday is the 8th of January, but they held the celebration this time on account of the only daughter, Mrs. R. L. Buchanan, of Silveston, Texas, who had been down on a visit and had to return home at this time. A FRIEND.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

The Brazos County Poultry Association again to help club members in their work for better poultry. At the regular meeting of the poultry association Monday night a proposition, initiated by vice-president, C. E. Jenkins, was made whereby the following members of the Brazos County Poultry Association agreed to furnish poultry club members standard bred eggs for hatching on condition that the chicks should be cared for according to methods prescribed by specialists of the College and the Extension Service that at least three of the birds would be exhibited at the forth coming county poultry show, that the club member would turn back to the Poultry Association an equal number of eggs next year, or season, and these in turn, to be let out by the association to other boys and girls desiring standard bred eggs; that all applications must be in by February 1, 1923: C. E. Jenkins, S. C. White Leghorns; Will Jones, R. L. Red; V. J. Boriskie, Barred Rocks; W. O. Sanders, S. C. White Leghorns; N. A. Stewart, Barred Rocks; T. J. Conway, Barred Rocks. Other breeders of standard bred poultry, who were not present at meeting, may make similar propositions to encourage club members in poultry work. Those desiring to take advantage of this proposition will make application to the County Agent before February 1.

Bankers of Grimes and Madison counties believe that standard bred poultry is a dependable source from which revenue may be derived, and in consequence of this decision they are lending the poultry industry both their moral and financial support. A Madisonville banker on a recent visit to Bryan is reported to have said, in speaking to a member of the Brazos County Poultry Association, that he had observed that customers with regular balances in his bank were those who raised standard bred poultry.

C. B. Martin, vocational teacher at Smetana, Leonard and Prospect is lending his hearty co-operation to the county agent in the terracing campaign now on, and in so doing he is giving the boys under his supervision some valuable and practical training out in the open fields where they may see the importance of terracing and learn the "mysteries" of the farm level. We have no objection to the teaching of grammar and arithmetic as they are essentials—but we are more interested in seeing that the boy who studies arithmetic can figure that terracing and drainage will, oftentimes, double the value and efficiency of his land. We need not concern ourselves so much yet about stocks and bonds; our land must be made more productive before the farmers will be able to make investments in them: Let the boys and girls do more figuring on practical problems of the farm and in this way more interest will be aroused.

Moore is expected to arrive tonight from Lampasas to join her husband, who came the first of the week to accept a position with Eugene Edge. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Persons and children spent the holidays with relatives and friends in San Antonio. Mrs. Persons and the children have returned to their home in Bryan. Mrs. Susie Benbow and Mrs. A. J.

The article follows: "Lamesa, Texas, December 18.—The Dawson County Farm Bureau received $7,000 for a co-operative pool of turkeys. The birds weighed a total of 23,817 pounds and brought an average of almost 30 cents per pound." Anyone can readily see that this was a difference of from 5 to 7 cents a pound in favor of the farmer who set the turkey eggs, fed and raised turkeys, sustained his loss by disease and then gathered them up and hauled them to market. Did he deserve it? "Cyclone" Davis used to draw a word picture of a huge cow which the farmers of the South were feeding while the manufacturers of the North were milking her, and he said that he thought the "cow" ought to be just turned around for a while at least. It occurs to us that any enterprise worthy existence should be cooperative and remunerative at both ends of the line. Successful stockmen wean the calves from the cows that the increase of stalwart calves may continue to come into their herds, and big business men are beginning to see that for the farmer to be the greatest business asset and source of revenue he must first be made prosperous, and this can never be done till the farm product sells at a profit over cost of production, and the profits shared with the farmer.

It is said that when a man's house is on fire he is much concerned about the promptness and efficiency of the fire company, and so it is with many other affairs in life. The drastic toll made on the farms of Brazos county by the heavy rains last year has aroused as never before an interesting campaign in terracing, and the interest does not seem confined to Brazos county alone, since a farmer from Marshall, Texas, writes County Agent Beason to come and terrace his lands in Harrison and Panola counties. We would like to accommodate the neighbor, but we have here at home more than we can ever say "grace" over.

Remember the Soil Improvement campaign starts Monday, beginning at Rock Prairie at 9 o'clock, Harvey at 11 Kurten at 3 p. m., and Tabor at 7:30 p. m. Farmers interested in bigger yields per acre should attend these meetings.

Will Jones, president of the Brazos County Poultry Association and F. W. Kazmeier, manager of the Bryan Hatchery, will attend the club meeting at Edge next Friday night and speak in the interest of better poultry for Brazos county. # PREDICT HOTTEST SESSION OF TEXAS LEGISLATURE NOW BEFORE SOLONS

(By Associated Press).
AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 8.—One of the "hottest" sessions of the Texas legislature that the State has ever witnessed, is the opinion of early arrivals of thirty-eighth legislature expressed generally about the capitol and hotel lobbies here today. Numbers of the legislators are in Austin and ready for the opening of the session next Tuesday morning.

Activity in the campaign of the various candidates for speaker of the house of representatives has been strong during the past week and the contest is expected to be a close one. Both R. E. Seagler, of Palestine, and Lewis T. Carpenter, of Dallas, claim they will be named to preside over the lower branch when the ballots are counted Tuesday.

Indications are that a flood of bills will be presented on the first day of the session. The attorney general's office has been called upon this week to draw up numerous measures for State departments. Each department is understood to be fostering a number of bills affecting its destinies.

Convention First.
One of the first considerations to come before the session will be the proposal to call a constitutional convention. This proposition is one of those most frequently discussed by the legislators and those leading the fight for the convention claim it will be carried.

Much is said concerning the action of the text book commission in adopting new texts for the coming year. One legislator is known to be considering a proposal to change the methods of selecting the text books and decreasing the power of the State commission. Comments are generally favorable on the measure which will be introduced providing for topographic surveys and work in flood control and reclamation.

Tax revision measures also are occupying much of the attention of the early arrivals. Considerable opposition is expressed to the proposal for enactment of an income tax law; a severance tax is an outstanding proposal, and changes in the gross receipts tax laws are certain to be proposed. A demand for relief for the present taxpayer and assessment of taxes on interests not reached at the present time, is the usual talk of the legislators.

College Question Up.
The question of establishing a West Texas A. and M. college will come up again this session and West Texas members have indicated they will make a fight for such an institution.

Other changes in the educational system also are talked of. The department of education has been asked to write a bill calling for an emergency appropriation to meet the present shortage of school funds. An extensive survey of all the educational system, with an appropriation to carry on such work, will be proposed, it is understood.

As a whole, the legislators express hope that the session will get down to work immediately and finish up its tasks in record time. A call for "more work and less delay" is frequently heard among the lawmakers.

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO EDWARD CAMERON

Just as the Christmas day was drawing to a close and all the world seemed at its happiest the death angel silently stole into a happy home and took a loving husband and an indulgent father away with him into the far beyond. The husband and father who answered this call was Edward Cameron of Wellborn. He was sick about 2 weeks, his condition being serious from the first, but physicians and loved ones did all that lay in human power to do but to no avail and on December 25, 1922, surrounded by his wife and children as well as other relatives and friends he breathed his last.

Mr. Cameron was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cameron, was born in Normangee, January 6, 1881, thus making him at the time of his death 41 years, 11 months and 19 days of age. He was married in Normangee 21 years ago to Miss Dona McWhorter and to them were born five children, Mrs. Jesse Peyton, Benchley, Jewell Ross, Golda Fae and Allen Cameron, who with their mother now reside at Benchley. He also leaves one brother and one sister, J. S. Cameron, and Mrs. Joe Mize, both of Normangee. He was laid lovingly and tenderly to rest in Normangee cemetery on December 26, thus being born, reared, married and buried in the same little town. He with his family had made Benchley their home for several years, having moved here to Hearne about one year ago, where he resided until he moved to Wellborn less than a month before his death. He had many friends here and elsewhere who, with the writer extend to his loved ones their heartfelt sympathy. He was a man of a bright, cheerful disposition and his face always reflected good cheer wherever he went. He was enraptured with life surrounded by his children and wife and with the rainbow of promise spanning the years before him, he met death as calmly as the great river flows peacefully into the sea. The sable winged messenger of death is seldom a welcome visitor, but at times his calls are attended by unusual sadness. When he calls for the infant in the mother's arms we are consoled by the thought that it might be best that it be taken before it knows aught of sorrow, that it may be best that the bright little flower be transplanted to bloom in fields Elysian. When he overtakes the aged man tottering towards the Valley amid the evening shadows, we feel that he should cheerily lay down his burden and his staff and willingly enter "the windowless palace of peace." But when he comes as in this instance to summon "to that bourn whence no traveler returns," a useful citizen, a fond husband and father, a vigorous man, just entering manhood's prime on whose stalwart form were falling the golden sunbeams of promise and whose face was radiant with the light of hope, his call is inexpressibly sad. We cannot solve the decrees of fate—we can but bow in submission to the will of "Him who doeth all things well." A FRIEND.

BRAZOS GO. RATTLE SHIPPED LOS MACHOS

I. K. Howell of Fort Worth, A. A. Huffstutler and W. V. (Bud) Hunt of Georgetown were in Bryan this morning. Messrs. Huffstutler and Hunt went on to Hearne, where they are to superintend the loading of 20 cars of cattle. Mr. Howell will have three cars loaded in Bryan and on Thursday they shipped 21 cars out of Navasota. All these cattle will go to pasture at Los Machos, on the border near Corpus Christi. Messrs. Howell, Hunt and Huffstutler are experiencing considerable trouble getting cattle shipped out of Grimes, Brazos and Robertson counties on account of the tick eradication laws and have had numbers of shipments delayed on this account.

ERNST-MCGALLIARD WEDS.

Prof. and Mrs. Anton Ernest have returned home after a most delightful holiday visit with relatives in Dallas, Waco and Mart. Anderson, pastor of the church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest will make their home in Dallas, where Mr. Ernest has won for himself an enviable reputation as a gifted musician. He plays the clarinet in the Palace Symphony orchestra. Robert Ernest formerly made his home in Bryan and has many friends who extend good wishes and congratulations to him and his bride for a life replete with happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest will be at home to their friends at 505 North 10th street.

The east end of 26th street, recently paved by the city is now open to the public and is proving a joy forever to the daily traffic.

TAXES ARE SLOWLY BEING PAID IN TO COLLECTOR'S OFFICE

The tax collector, Roy Hudspeth, at the county court house, is very well pleased at the speed with which the automobile owners are taking up the matter of registering their cars this year. Last year only about 25 per cent of the cars had been registered by this date and this year about 75 per cent have already been taken care of. To date, 1309 cars have been registered and the total number in 1922 was only 1708. Mr. Hudspeth said he estimated there would be around 2,000 in the county this year.

The following are the precincts of the county in consecutive order from one to twelve, by name, together with the number who have paid their poll tax in each precinct: Millican, 19; Wellborn, 21; College, 80; Steel Store, 17; Harvey, 17; Kurten, 43; Tabor, 37; Edge, 45; Smetana, 50; City Hall, 85; Court House, 127; Reliance, 7; making a total of 548 who have paid poll taxes in December of 1922. This total multiplied by the tax of $1.75 gives a total of $959, that was paid in December. December totals of other taxes collected are: state tax, $11,129.77; county tax, $10,387.79; road district No. 2, $760.06; district schools, $4,531.60; levee district, $205.10; occupation tax, $127.50; delinquent taxes collected, $449.06; poll tax, $959; a general total of $32,408.52. Mr. Hudspeth said that only about 25 per cent of the total number to pay poll tax, had yet contributed as there should be about 3600 to 3800 this year.

MRS. COLE MAKES RECORD.

Bryan has a most remarkable citizen and it is doubtful if any other community can boast of so unusual a personage as Mrs. M. A. Cole, affectionately called "Mother Cole" by all who know her. "Mother Cole" is now nearing 82 years of age and it is almost unbelievable that at this age is still able to do the finest needle work and embroidery. During the month of January to November of last year she made 20 elaborately embroidered bed spreads, 67 other smaller pieces of embroidery and some knitting. Can any one beat that record?

C. L. BEASON, COUNTY AGENT ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON ON MONDAY

A luncheon was given by County Agent C. L. Beason, Monday noon at his home on East Twenty-third street. The guests gathered about the table at 12:30 o'clock and enjoyed a splendid dinner of roast turkey with all the trimmings, and when the luncheon party broke up at 2:30 o'clock, the host and hostess, Mrs. C. L. Beason, were highly complimented upon the manner in which they were entertained. The guests present were: County Judge H. O. Ferguson; County Commissioners C. M. Degelia, John Moore, C. M. Risner, all of the foregoing representing the Commissioners' Court; Miss Helen M. Higgins, State Home Demonstration Agent; Miss Laura Belle Ruten, County Home Demonstration Agent; and H. H. Williamson, State Farm Demonstration Agent, all from the Extension Department of the A. & M. College; W. H. Cole, President of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce; J. D. Martin, chairman of the agricultural committee, and S. E. Eberstadt, secretary, both of the same organization—Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce. These were seated at the table with C. L. Beason, County Farm Agent, presiding as host on the occasion.

Work of the Past Year
At the close of the luncheon, Mr. Beason arose and made a few remarks in which he expressed his pleasure in having as his guests the men and women composing the three factions engaged in serving the public: the commissioners' court, the Extension Department of A. & M. College and the Chamber of Commerce, all of which had extended him such valuable assistance and splendid co-operation during the year 1922; and that he would like to hear any remark that any of those present might care to make that they thought would result in more efficient work the year just begun. Mr. Williamson replied to him, commending the work of the past year and complimenting the county agent who was responsible for the plans successfully carried out; he said that much splendid work had been done by this organization throughout the State of Texas, but that none had been more valuable to its section than that performed by the Brazos county farm agent. Mr. Williamson also gave many good suggestions for the work of the coming year. Judge Ferguson, representing the commissioners' court, stated that they were in hearty accord with the work of the county agents and the result of their work, he said, was very apparent throughout the county.

Miss Higgins submitted statistics on the work being done by her department throughout the state and complimented Miss Rotan and the work she is doing for this county, pledging her department's most earnest support. Miss Rotan followed, outlining briefly some of the work that she has been doing in getting her clubs organized in the county and explained some of her progressive plans for the future.

County Agent Commended
W. H. Cole, speaking for the Chamber of Commerce, stated that this organization has co-operated in every possible way with both the A. & M. College Extension Department and the county agents and that he felt that the county was being greatly benefitted in every way.

J. D. Martin said that, serving as he did on the agricultural committee of the C. of C., he could see the great work being done by the county agents and expressed the hope that the future would not only show the same high quality but would surpass it, if possible. Secretary Eberstadt of the Chamber of Commerce, from his position, is in closer touch with the details of his work and with the representatives of the other two factions, closed the talks, explaining the organization of the community clubs and community fairs, which, in his opinion, he said, were a great factor in the life of all communities in the county.

ALLEN ACADEMY AWARDED FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

WACO, Texas, Jan. 9.—Owing to the inability of representatives of some of the schools affiliated to be present, a meeting of the Texas Academy Athletic Conference scheduled for this afternoon at Baylor University was deferred until next Saturday.
